

School Behavioral Health: Intersecting Initiatives - Survey Results (5.20.19)

School Behavioral Health Related Initiatives	Priority	Public Owner/s-Nnotes
Chronic Absenteeism Prevention	High	Schools in partnership with Comm Schools (OSSE) and Collaboratives
Family Resourcing	High	Collaboratives, CBOs: Schools consistently ask to support families with resources, very few dedicated positions in the work for this on site
Substance Abuse prevention	High
Suicide Prevention	High
Social Emotional Learning	High	DCPS
Evidence-based Treatment	High	DCPS continues to add to the menu of mental health offerings available for students- emphasis on substance use, suicide prevention, and preschoolers.
Community Schools Initiatives	High/Medium	OSSE
School Climate	High/Medium	OSSE leads a taskforce Jarred Bowman (Jarred.bowman@dc.gov)
Anti-Bullying	High/Medium	Suzanne Greenfield (OHR)
Crisis Response	High/Medium	need to ensure schools have adequate supports with this. Is CHAMPS responsive enough? (DBH) DCPS?
School-Based Health Centers	High/Medium	DC Health has seven SBHC at DCPS. Additional Information is available at https://dchealth.dc.gov/service/school-based-health-centers . Please e-mail DC SBHC (DOH) <DC.SBHC@dc.gov> DCPS-Partnering with DC Health to increase utilization and care coordination within schools
Provider Offerings	High/Medium	Unique programs or services providers offer
Restorative Justice	Medium	OSSE
Parent Support	Medium	PAVE/AJE
Resilient Scholars Program	Medium
DC School Health Services Program	Medium	DC Health - care coordination process for students that need to be referred to behavioral health services. Information about the program is available at https://dchealth.dc.gov/service/school-health-services-program . For additional information please contact Program, SHS (DOH) <shs.program@dc.gov>
Staff wellness	Medium	DCPS
Juvenile Justice Diversion Programs (ACE, PASS, STEP)	Medium	Family-based intervention, treatment, and support for teens (and pre-teens?) experiencing challenging behaviors left unaddressed could result in status offenses and court involvement

Coordinating Council on School Mental Health